 Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW or IMF
 Instructor: Matt Harwood, LCSW, Clinical Training Coordinator for Mental Health Services at AIDS Project Los Angeles
 Description: Designed to assist attendees in gaining knowledge about, and comfort in, discussing the human reproductive system; the sexual response cycle; developmental issues; sexual dysfunction and treatment; and sexual orientation.
- ❖ Spousal/Partner Abuse Detection, Assessment and Intervention – Day 1 of 2      Course #: 1-2-10      Hours: 15 (2-days)      Time 8:30am-5:30pm
 Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW or IMF
 Instructor: Greg Merrill, LCSW, Field Work Consultant and Lecturer, UC Berkeley, Social Welfare
 Description: This course will teach how to assess and intervene effectively with individuals, families and children impacted by intimate partner violence. The scope, impact, and causes of the problem will be reviewed as well as relevant screening and assessment skills, effective clinical intervention techniques and available community resources.
- ❖ Substance Dependency - Day 1 of 2      Course #: 1-3-10      Hours: 15 (2-days)      Time: 8:30am-5:30pm
 Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW or IMF
 Instructor: Georgi DiStefano, LCSW, Clinical Director, San Diego State Foundation (DUIP) and Corporate Trainer
 Description: An overview of the diagnosis and treatment of chemically dependent clients, the basic physical effects and pharmacological actions of commonly abused substances, and the changing patterns of assessment and treatment.
- ❖ Clinical Supervision - Day 1 of 2      Course #: 1-4-10      Hours: 15 (2-days)      Time: 8:30am-5:30pm
 Requirement: This course is required by the CA Board to supervise an ASW
 Instructor: Marshall Jung, LCSW
 Description: This interactive workshop will provide participants with information, techniques, and opportunity to share their knowledge, challenges and rewards. Such topics as Legal & Ethical Issues, current BBS regulations, developing supervision contracts, will be explored through the use of vignettes, small group activities and lecture.
- ❖ Aging and Long-term Care/Identifying Concerns and Critical Issues      Course #: 1-5-10      Hours: 7      Time: 9:00am-5:30pm
 Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement on "Aging and Long-term Care" for an ASW or IMF if taken with Saturday's 3-hour course # 2-12-10
 Sponsored: By American Society on Aging
 Instructor: Patrick Arbore, EdD, Program Director and Founder of Center for Elderly Suicide Prevention and Grief Services
 Description: One of the most critical issues that must be addressed when working with older adults is ageism. This term is used to describe the tendency of a society to assign negative stereotypes to older adults. We will examine the impact of ageism as we identify the medical, social, and psychological problems that seriously affect the quality of life of older adults.
- ❖ Advanced Law and Ethics      Course #: 1-6-10      Hours: 6      Time: 9:00am-4:30pm
 Requirement: Meets license renewal requirement for Law & Ethics for LCSW or MFT
 Instructor: Marci Siegel, LCSW
 Description: This course provides information and analysis of professional issues related to standard of care, liability, risk management, and scope of practice for advanced clinicians. It will focus on updates pertaining to laws, regulations and ethical standards affecting the practice of psychotherapy in California. The course will address changes in reporting requirements, confidentiality, privileged communication, supervision, minors in treatment, and other clinical practice issues.
- ❖ LCSW Written and Clinical Examination Review      Course #: 1-7-10      Hours: 7      Time: 8:30am-5:00pm
 Instructor: Estela Andujo, LCSW, DSW, Adjunct Associate Professor, USC, School of Social Work
 Description: This course will provide an overview of major areas of content for the LCSW Written and Clinical Vignette examination. BBS required knowledge will be reviewed and participants will be guided in developing test taking strategies for approaching the examination. The course is engaging, and experiential in nature and involves direct lecture, group and individual practice.

Friday Half-Day AM Classes

- ❖ Working With Grieving Children Course #: 1-8-10 Hours: 3 Time: 9:00am-12:00pm
Instructor: Lauren Schneider, LCSW, Clinical Director of Child and Adolescent Programs, OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center
Description: Death is a life cycle event. Grief is a natural reaction, yet few clinicians have had training on how to assist grieving clients. In this workshop participants will gain an understanding of the physical, cognitive, emotional and behavioral responses of grieving children and teens along with a model for understanding grief from a developmental perspective. Participants will also acquire effective intervention strategies to utilize with individual clients and groups.
- ❖ The Utilization of Motivational Interviewing Course #: 1-9-10 Hours: 3 Time: 9:00am-12:00pm
Instructor: Joshua Kirsch, LCSW, Psychiatric Social Worker
Description: Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an evidence based technique that is consistent with the values of social work. Both client-centered and directive, it has research support in work with people with diverse ethnic backgrounds. This workshop provides a brief introduction to MI and an opportunity for clinicians to learn and practice clinical skills.
- ❖ Developing a Social Neuroscientific Perspective of Behaviors Course #: 1-10-10 Hours: 3 Time: 9:00am-12:00pm
Instructor: Elizabeth Koller, BSEE, MBA, Executive Director, Perspectives on Growth and Development, Inc.
Description: Brain chemistry is a major determinant of adult and youth behaviors explaining why physiological rewards take precedence over psychological rewards despite negative consequences. Learn about 5 key neurotransmitters and their interrelationships, gaining an appreciation of how neurochemical imbalances drive unwanted behaviors and moods. Understand the impact of controllable influencers: diet, nutrition, exercise, and activities on neurotransmitter levels. Research is presented in a way that demonstrates its applicability to clinical work with clients, augmented with checklists.
- ❖ Starting, Marketing, and Managing your Own Private Practice Course #: 1-11-10 Hours: 3 Time: 9:00am-12:00pm
Instructor: Federico Grosso, PhD, MFT, BCFE
Description: Today, to increase the possibility of creating a successful practice, clinicians must become aware of the many different business practices, create a viable business plan, and consistently and effectively implement and re-evaluate the business plan. This course will assist attendees in creating a plan for starting a new private practice. Attendees will learn about important management issues including but not limited to: the utilization of an accountant; the creation of an initial and ongoing business budget; the development of a referral base; the required licenses and insurance, the evaluation of effective marketing approaches, the design of a unique niche; the importance of addressing legal and ethical issues; and many other important steps in building a private practice.

Friday Half-Day PM Classes

- ❖ The Eating Disorders Toolbox: Advanced Therapeutic Strategies for the Eating Disorder Client Course #: 1-12-10 Hours: 3 Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm
Instructors: Tony Paulson, PhD, Executive Director, Summit Eating Disorders Program
Jennifer Lombardi, MFT, Director of Admissions, Summit Eating Disorders Program
Description: Understanding the medical, psychological and nutritional components of eating disorders treatment is imperative in order to provide appropriate, effective care. What makes treatment increasingly more complex is the diversity of the client population, which includes children, males, and clients from numerous cultural and socio-economic backgrounds. Participants will learn the foundation of effective eating disorders treatment based on current research and important cultural and age considerations. Attendees will leave with a toolbox of interventions and experiential activities to use.
- ❖ Helping People Who Hoard Who Don't Want Help: A Multifaceted Approach to Improving Functioning in Afflicted Individuals Course #: 1-13-10 Hours: 3 Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm
Instructor: Mark Odom, LCSW, Clinical Consultant, Orange County Task Force on Hoarding
Description: Compulsive hoarding is a perplexing and confounding problem for afflicted individuals, their families, communities and service providers. The extreme resistance often embodied by people who hoard is often compounded by the squalor in which they live. This workshop will explore current research, reasons for resistance, and the ethical and practical issues surrounding the implementation of the clinical and community based enforced harm reduction approach to helping people who experience compulsive hoarding.
- ❖ Integrating Financial Education into Clinical Practice Course #: 1-14-10 Hours: 3 Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm
Instructors: Shawna Reeves, MSW, Program Coordinator, Fair Lending Project for Seniors, Council on Aging Silicon Valley
Sponsored by: Social Action/Social Justice Council
Description: Our clients deal with a host of issues, but are we really prepared to help them work through their financial problems or successfully advocate for them when it comes to consumer protection? Much of what passes for financial education follows the "buyer beware" model, putting the onus squarely on the consumer to protect herself. This presentation will not only challenge that model but explore alternative ways of helping clients survive these fraught economic times.

❖ Cultural Responsiveness: Tools for Understanding Each Family's Unique Culture

Course #: 1-15-10

Hours: 3

Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm

Instructor: Geraldine Rodriguez, PhD, National Trainer and Consultant, Associate Director EMQ Family Partnership Institute
Description: Working in the field of social work requires a working knowledge of the diverse culture that individuals, families, and youth identify with. This workshop identifies the issues involved in looking at diversity, addresses myths and provides tools and effective strategies that assist in assessing diverse world views.

Friday Evening Class

❖ Job Search Strategies and Resources for Social Workers

Course #: 1-16-10

CEUs: None

Time: 7:00pm-8:30pm

Instructor: Lora Pierce, BSW, MS, Director of Membership and Communications, NASW-CA

Description: In the best of times, a job search is challenging and, in the current economy, it is even more so. For professionals in California, the average length of a job search is now 9-12 months. This workshop is designed to provide participants with the top ten job search strategies along with a variety of resources to support their search. Overcome a major job seeker's obstacle – isolation – by attending and enhancing your support system.

Additional fee applies: $15/NASW members $20/Non-members

Saturday Full-Day Classes

❖ Child Abuse Assessment and Reporting

Course #: 2-1-10

Hours: 7

Time: 8:30am-5:00pm

Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW, or IMF

Instructor: Ray Liles, DSW, LCSW, Assistant Professor of Social Work, California State University, San Bernardino

Description: This interactive course includes the identification, reporting, and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Special emphasis is given to the California mandatory child abuse reporting law and the consequences of failure to report suspected abuse of neglect. Specific information is provided on physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, and child neglect.

❖ Spousal/Partner Abuse Detection, Assessment and Intervention – Day 2

Course #: 1-2-10

Hours: 15 (2-days)

Time: 8:30am-5:30pm

Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW or IMF

Instructor: Greg Merrill, LCSW, Field Work Consultant and Lecturer, UC Berkeley, Social Welfare

Description: This course will teach how to assess and intervene effectively with individuals, families and children impacted by intimate partner violence. The scope, impact, and causes of the problem will be reviewed as well as relevant screening and assessment skills, effective clinical intervention techniques and available community resources.

❖ Substance Dependency - Day 2

Course #: 1-3-10

Hours: 15 (2-days)

Time: 8:30am-5:30pm

Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement for an ASW or IMF

Instructor: Georgi DiStefano, LCSW, Clinical Director, San Diego State Foundation (DUIP) and Corporate Trainer

Description: An overview of the diagnosis and treatment of chemically dependent clients, the basic physical effects and pharmacological actions of commonly abused substances, and the changing patterns of assessment and treatment.

❖ Clinical Supervision - Day 2

Course #: 1-4-10

Hours: 15 (2-days)

Time: 8:30am-5:30pm

Requirement: This course is required by the CA Board to supervise an ASW

Instructor: Marshall Jung, LCSW

Description: This interactive workshop will provide participants with information, techniques, and opportunity to share their knowledge, challenges and rewards. Such topics as Legal & Ethical Issues, current BBS regulations, developing supervision contracts, will be explored through the use of vignettes, small group activities and lecture.

❖ Advanced Applications of CA Law and Ethics

Course #: 2-2-10

Hours: 6

Time: 9:00am-4:30pm

Requirement: Meets the continuous Law and Ethics requirement for an LCSW or MFT

Instructor: Federico Grosso, MFT, PhD, BCFE, Trainer and Consultant

Description: In this interactive course, clinicians will explore challenging legal and ethical issues from an advanced perspective and will learn how to apply those standards in a manner that can protect them. Dr. Grosso is an expert witness who is retained by attorneys to help defend or litigate against clinicians involved in a malpractice or administrative action.

Saturday Half-Day AM Classes

❖ Building Bridges – Creative Interventions for Traumatized Children

Course #: 2-3-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Instructor: Estela Andujo, Ph.D, LCSW, Adjunct Associate Professor, USC School of Social Work

Description: Clinical work with children who have been traumatized can be challenging and emotionally overwhelming for the clinician. This workshop will review current trauma theory and present creative, evidenced-based therapeutic approaches for addressing the needs of clients who have experienced severe trauma. This interactive workshop will review Play, Art, Narrative and Solution-Focused techniques applicable to work with children who have experienced trauma.

Saturday Half-Day AM Classes continued

❖ Helping Families/Caregivers Make the Difficult Decisions for Those Without Capacity

Course #: 2-4-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Instructor: Viki Kind, MA, Bioethicist, Medical Educator and Bioethics Consultant

Description: Professionals and families/caregivers struggle to make decisions for those who have lost capacity. In this course, you will learn the framework and tools you will need to get a good, ethical decision. These tools help give voice to those who can't speak for themselves. You will learn specific strategies and questions to use when guiding families through these difficult situations. These tools can be adapted depending on a person's level of incapacity and the situation.

❖ Death, Dying and Loss: Social Work Approaches in End-of-Life Care

Course #: 2-5-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Instructors: Steve Wilson, Ph.D., LCSW, Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work, California State University, Long Beach
Erin McCuan, MSW, Director of Social Services, Haven Home Health and Hospice

Description: This practical and interactive workshop is designed for social work professionals who work with patients at end-of-life as well as the recently bereaved. Using a variety of activities, illustrations, and exercises, we will explore therapeutic tools to effectively counsel bereaved adults and children. We will also examine contemporary theories of grief and bio-ethics dilemmas in healthcare at end of life. Finally, there will be an opportunity for self-reflection regarding our own desires for end-of-life care.

❖ The Importance of Closure: Shedding Light on the Termination Process

Course #: 2-6-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Instructor: Quint Paige, MS, LMFT, Registered Play Therapist & Supervisor

Description: Termination happens! No matter the therapeutic modality, if there's a beginning there will be an ending. It's unavoidable yet generally not well planned for. Hopefully it happens after the client has achieved treatment goals yet sometimes unexpectedly and prematurely. This workshop focuses on preparing for and bringing closure to the work, helping clinicians to be conscious and mindful so when it happens, both the clinician and client are ready, willing, and able to say goodbye.

❖ Mediation: Expanding Field of Practice for Social Workers

Course #: 2-7-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Instructor: David Kuroda, LCSW, former Division Chief, Family Court Services, Superior Court of Los Angeles

Description: Mediation of child custody disputes in California has expanded the field of practice for social workers. Working in the Superior Court as well as in the community, mediation is a satisfying and rewarding way of serving the needs of children and families by helping parents resolve their own disputes, avoiding costly court hearings. This workshop will give a brief history of mediation and demonstrate how the social worker can mediate child custody disputes.

❖ Aging and Long-term Care/Identifying Concerns and Critical Issues

Course #: 2-12-10

Hours: 3

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

Requirement: Meets pre-license requirement on "Aging and Long-term Care" for an ASW or IMF if taken with Friday's 7-hour course # 1-5-10. Meets license renewal requirement for LCSW or MFT.

Sponsored: By American Society on Aging

Instructor: Patrick Arbore, EdD, Program Director and Founder of Center for Elderly Suicide Prevention and Grief Services

Description: One of the most critical issues that must be addressed when working with older adults is ageism. This term is used to describe the tendency of a society to assign negative stereotypes to older adults. We will examine the impact of ageism as we identify the medical, social, and psychological problems that seriously affect the quality of life of older adults.

Saturday Half-Day PM Classes

❖ Helping Clients Through Divorce

Course #: 2-8-10

Hours: 3

Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm

Instructor: Susan Pease Gadoua, LCSW, CADAC, Director of the Transition Institute of Marin

Description: Given how prevalence divorce is these days, there is little education available for therapists on how to meet the needs of this transitioning population. This unique and interactive workshop is designed to help clinicians understand the phases (contemplation, the decision to divorce, the divorce process and post-divorce) and facets (grief, diminished capacity and emotional flooding) as well as explore the far-reaching impacts divorce may have on one's life with home, co-parenting, family, friends and finances.

❖ Psychological First Aid

Course #: 2-9-10

Hours: 3

Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm

Instructor: Vicky Powell, LCSW, MPA, Co-chair, NASW – CA/American Red Cross Council

Sponsored: By American Red Cross Council

Description: This course enables all providers whether licensed or not to provide basic care, comfort and support to people who are experiencing disaster-related stress. Learn how to recognize signs of stress in clients (adults and children), co-workers and yourself and apply psychological first aid principles in providing immediate support to people who may be experiencing stress.

Saturday Half-Day PM Classes (continued)

❖ Clinical Practice with Military Families and Veterans: A Model for Resiliency Building

Course #:2-10-10

Hours: 3

Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm

Instructors: Eugenia L. Weiss, Psy.D, LCSW, Clinical Assistant Professor, USC School of Social Work and Private Practitioner
Jose E. Coll, Ph.D, MSW, Clinical Assistant Professor, USC School of Social Work, Retired Marine
Valvincent Reyes, LCSW, Clinical Assistant Professor, USC School of Social Work, Lt. Col. U.S. Army Reserve

Description: The Purpose of this course is to expose civilian practitioners to clinical practice with military families and returning veterans. Military culture, the demands of deployment and reintegration with family and community will be addressed within a resiliency building model of intervention.

❖ Non-Traditional Social Work – Is it for Me?

Course #:2-11-10

Hours: 3

Time: 1:30pm-4:30pm

Instructor: Carrie A. Lew, EdD, LCSW, Director of Professional Development & Alumni Relations, USC School of Social Work
J. Juan Macias, LCSW, Accepting the Job, Employment Development Consultant

Description: Budget and program cuts – given the economic times, we need to be creative, expand career opportunities, increase salaries, etc. The Employment Development Project was initiated to develop “non-traditional” social work jobs in order to provide MSWs with a greater array of possible employment options. Qualitative data was collected from a wide variety of industries that typically do not hire MSWs that indicated their interest in employing MSWs and what skills are needed to be successful.
